1. The enrollment for the '2018-19 ODD semester' begins on 25.06.2018 and ends on 27.06.2018. All CBCS students of all batches have to complete their enrollment for that semester (Regular and arrear courses). Please note that there is no limit on the number of credits for enrolling arrear courses.
 2. The current practice is to conduct the supplementary examinations during the weekends (when semester classes are going on) and at the end of the semester (along with the regular examinations). For the ensuing 2018-19 ODD semester, the supplementary examinations for select/limited courses will be conducted, as special supplementary, before the commencement of semester classes. The supplementary examinations for the other courses will be conducted during the weekends (when semester classes are going on) and at the end of the semester (along with the regular examinations).
 3. After the enrollment is completed, a list of courses will be prepared for the Special supplementary examinations as per the following guideline: All the arrear courses enrolled by the 2015-16 admitted CBCS students, who are having 3 or lesser arrear courses in the enrollment for 2018-19 Odd semester, will be considered for the Special Supplementary examinations. The list of courses for the special supplementary examinations will be published by the Controller of Examinations.
 4. All CBCS students of all batches who have enrolled, as Terminal Exam only type, for the courses listed for special supplementary examinations MUST attend the special supplementary examinations. However, examinations will be conducted at the end of the semester only for those students who have enrolled, as FULL Registration type, for the courses listed in special supplementary examinations.
 5. Supplementary examinations will be conducted, for all other courses not listed for Special supplementary examinations, during the weekends (when semester classes are going on) and at the end of the semester (along with the regular examinations).
 6. The special supplementary examinations will commence on 09th July, 2018.
